The Company agrees to deduct each month from the wages or money payable to employees from the first pay check dated in each month, who are members of the Union the amount of regular union membership dues, application and/or initiation fees, assessments and voluntary contributions for such employees who sign a written assignment and authorization, authorizing such deduction and payments. Such authorization will be delivered by the Union to the Company. Such deductions will continue unless and until the written assignment and authorization is properly revoked. The Company will remit to the Union said dues and other amounts together with a list of the names for whom the deductions were made no later than the pay day on which the deductions are made.

ARTICLE 2. UNION SECURITY

To the extent permitted by law, all full-time and part-time employees covered by this agreement must become and remain members of the Union, or pay their fair share as required by law, no later than the 31st day following completion of their probationary period or the date of this agreement as a condition of their continued employment with the Company.

The Company will notify new employees of this Agreement by including a Union membership application form and a dues check-off form in the new employee information packets. The Company will immediately send to the Union the names and contact information of all new employees.

ARTICLE 3. DISCRIMINATION

The Company agrees that neither it nor any of its officers, managers, or supervisors will differentiate among, discriminate against, interfere with, restrain, or coerce employees because of membership in the Union, or because of participation in the Union's affairs or because of race, religious belief, color, age, sex or other characteristic prohibited by law; nor will the Company or any of its officers, managers, or supervisors discriminate against any employee or group of employees for presenting any complaint, dispute or grievance.

The Union will not differentiate among, discriminated against, interfere with, restrain or coerce employees because of non-membership in the Union, or because of race, religious belief, color, age sex, or any other characteristic prohibited by law.

The Company will not retaliate against any employee for his/her good faith efforts to enforce or observe provisions of this Agreement or for any other Union supporting or other concerted activities protected by Section VII of the National Labor Relations Act.

ARTICLE 4. LOCKOUTS AND STRIKES

There will be no cessation of work by reason of lockout. There will be no slowdown or stoppage of work by any employee or employees to bring about any change in this Agreement or because of any grievance or alleged grievance. Any employee violating this article will be subject to discharge.

The management of the Company and the direction of the work force, including the right to hire, to appoint supervisors and lead persons, to suspend or discharge for just cause is vested exclusively in the Company, but these rights will be so exercised as not to discriminate against any member of the Union or conflict with the provisions of this agreement.

The Company maintains the right to make and enforce reasonable work rules, policies and procedures as long as such rules are not arbitrary, capricious or in violation of any of the terms of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 6. CONTRAVENTION OF LAWS

The provisions of this agreement are subordinate to any present or subsequent federal, state or municipal law or regulation, including family leave and military leave, to the extent that any portion hereof is in conflict therewith, and nothing herein will require the Company to do anything inconsistent with the orders or regulations of any competent government authority having jurisdiction to issue the same.

If any of the terms of this agreement are declared invalid by any court, such decision shall not invalidate the entire agreement, or any unaffected provision.

ARTICLE 7. MAINTENANCE OF STANDARDS

The Company agrees not to enter into any other agreement or contract, written or oral, with its employees, who are members of the Union, individually or collectively, which in any way conflicts with the terms and provisions of this Agreement.

Management, employees and bargaining unit representatives will act in a professional manner and will treat each other with dignity and respect at all times.

ARTICLE 8. SENIORITY

- (a) Full-time and part-time Food Service employees will have their seniority measured from the hour and date of first work performed in the Sacramento restaurant. Should two or more employees commence service on the same date and hour, the date and hour of the application for employment will determine the order of their seniority. Separate seniority rosters will be maintained for full-time employees and part-time employees.
- (b) Employees who wish to transfer to another location represented by the ATU must submit a letter of intent. The letter must be submitted to the manager of the transfer location and the employee's current location. Such requests will expire each year on December 31. When vacancies exist at a location, employees who have submitted a letter requesting transfer to that location will be allowed to transfer to the location. When there are more transfer requests than vacancies, seniority will prevail. Such employees will initially be assigned to a vacant shift but will be allowed to exercise their seniority on all future bids.
- (c) A new full-time employee will be in a probationary status for the first 90 calendar days of employment and will not acquire seniority within the meaning of this Article, but if he/she is employed beyond said 90 calendar day period his/her seniority will date from the first day of continuous employment. Except as stated here, the grievance procedure is applicable to probationary employees. The grievance procedure is not applicable to the dismissal of employees during the 90-day probationary period except that the grievance procedure will be applicable to contest whether the reason given for the discharge was pre-textual.
- (d) All full-time employees must complete training within three months of employment in their primary work area or be terminated. If the employee had previously worked in a different position (immediately prior to this position), he/she will be allowed to use his/her seniority to displace into the classification previously held.
- (e) A new part-time employee will be considered as a probationary employee until he/she has completed 300 paid hours of employment. Should a part-time employee become full-time, full-time seniority will commence on the day full-time work begins. If a full-time employee goes to part-time, the employee will forfeit all full-time seniority, except where the employee goes to part-time as a result of furlough.
- (f) If any employee quits, is discharged, is on furlough in excess of one year, or fails to report for work upon termination of a leave of absence, or in case of furlough, within seven days of mailing of a recall notice by certified mail, without an adequate reason, he/she forfeits all seniority previously established and will no longer be considered an employee. It will be the responsibility of the employee to keep the Company informed as to the address and telephone number at which he/she can be reached.
- (g) The Company will keep posted in conspicuous places the lists of employees showing the seniority date of each. Any protests to placement on any seniority roster will be made within 30 calendar days of an employee's initial placement on the roster. Upon request, the Company will forward to the Union Secretary/Treasurer a list of all employees, full and part time, showing seniority dates, job classifications, rates of pay and paid hours for the period requested for each employee.

ARTICLE 9. PART-TIME EMPLOYEES

A part-time employee is any employee hired to work less than 1,500 paid hours per calendar year. Part-time hours shall be at the discretion of the Company.

ARTICLE 10. FURLOUGH AND RECALL

- (a) When a furlough is made, full-time employees will be furloughed in reverse order of seniority. However, if an employee to be furloughed holds a job no senior employee can fill, such employee will be retained and the next senior employee furloughed in his/her place. When a full-time position is eliminated, the employee will be given the option become part-time and the junior part-time employee will be furloughed. Full-time employees electing to become part-time will maintain their full-time seniority for one year.
- (b) The Company will give five working days' notice of layoff for lack of work or else pay full lost wages in lieu of such notice.
- (c) Furloughed employees, when called back to work, will be re-employed in Food Service in order of their seniority and in accordance with seniority provisions set forth herein.
- (d) If an employee is on furlough status for more than one year, his/her name will be removed from the seniority list.

ARTICLE 11. LEAVES OF ABSENCE

- (a) Upon written request, an employee may be granted a leave of absence, without pay, for personal reasons for a period not to exceed 30 days. Such personal leaves may be extended by the Company, upon written request by the employee, for additional 30-day period. However, an employee on a personal leave of absence for more than 30 days will not be eligible for any benefits under this Agreement until such time as the employee returns to active employment. Employees on leave of absence who engage in full time employment for another employer will be terminated. An employee off due to illness (including workers' compensation), must provide medical evidence as required by the Company. Absences due to illness will be unlimited up to one year.
- (b) The company will comply with the Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993 (FMLA) as amended, and its regulations for all eligible employees. Eligible employees include those in locations with fewer than 50 employees.
- (c) Maternity leave will be granted with no loss of seniority for the period the employee's doctor determines that she is physically unable to return to her normal duties.
- (d) Employees who are on official Union business will be granted the necessary leaves of absence to permit the performance of their duties, provided reasonable notice is given and the leaves does not interfere with the business of the Company. Such employees will suffer no loss of rights or benefits enjoyed by other employees by reason of their absence. The Union agrees its members will not abuse the rights granted under this provision.

ARTICLE 12. DISCIPLINE

- (a) The Company will follow a policy of progressive discipline involving verbal warning, written warning, suspension and discharge, except for violations so serious as to warrant immediate suspension and/or discharge.
- (b) Disciplinary notices will not remain in effect for a period of more than 12 months from the date of such notice providing there have been no similar infractions during the interim. Egregious disciplinary infractions concerning cash, safety employee relations or customer complaints may be retained in file for 24 months.
- (c) The Company will give written notification to an employee and the Union of the reason for the discipline or discharge of the employee and such notice will be prior to the commencement of discipline. Any disciplinary action must be taken within 20 days (excluding Saturdays, Sundays and holidays) of the Company's knowledge of an infraction except in cases involving dishonesty, in which case disciplinary action must be taken within 20 days of the Company's completion of its investigation. Employees will not be disciplined or discharged nor will entries be made against their record without just cause.
- (d) When an employee quits or is discharged, the Company will pay all money due to the employee in accordance with state/federal law.
- (e) Employees handling money will account for and remit the same to the Company in accordance with Company policy. An employee's cash turn-in(s) shall be verified or audited by the Company's designee.

ARTICLE 13. GRIEVANCE AND ARBITRATION

In the event of a complaint or grievance arising under the terms of this agreement, the union steward shall take the matter up with a supervisor/manager and every reasonable effort shall be made to reach a satisfactory non-precedent setting solution. However, this shall not bar the affected employee's right initially to endeavor to adjust the matter with his/her supervisor/manager, so long as the adjustment does not violate any provision of this agreement. If a settlement involving a cash payment is reached, the Company will notify the Union of such payment within 10 days.

STEP ONE

Grievances must be filed by the Union with a designated supervisor within 15 days after the occurrence of the event complained of or of a disciplinary notice (grievance must be in writing). The Company supervisor/manager will answer grievances, in writing, within 15 days of receipt of the grievance. The 15 days may be extended by mutual agreement. When a timely Company request for extension is made, the Union will grant a 10-day extension. Final disposition at this step is non-precedent setting and may not be relied upon by the Union or the Company in any arbitration hearing or for any purpose.

STEP TWO

If the Company's response in Step One is not satisfactory to the Union, the Union may appeal the matter for a Step Two Conference to the Regional Manager or designee to resolve the matter. Such appeal must be made in writing within 15 days of receipt of the Step One response.

A Step Two Conference will be held within 15 days after receipt of this appeal at the home location of the employee, unless otherwise agreed between the parties. Within 15 days of the conference the Company must respond with a written decision. The time limits may be extended by mutual agreement of the parties. Final disposition at this step is non-precedent setting and may not be relied upon by the Union or Company in any arbitration or for any purpose.

ARBITRATION

In the event a grievance is not resolved at Step Two, the grievance may be referred in writing to arbitration by the Union President or his/her designee within 45 days after the Union's next regularly scheduled executive board meeting not to exceed 135 days from the date the Step two decision is rendered. The issue to be arbitrated must be clearly stated. Any grievance that has been submitted to arbitration must be discussed with the senior director of labor relations or designee to attempt to settle the grievance prior to arbitration. Arbitration will be administered by the American Arbitration Association and conducted under its labor arbitration rules. All arbitrators will be selected from those admitted to the National Academy of Arbitrators.

The decision of the arbitrator will be final and binding on all parties and the parties agree to comply with such decision. The arbitrator will not have the power to add to, subtract from or alter any of the terms of this Agreement.

The fee of the impartial arbitrator and meeting room will be split equally between the parties.

ARTICLE 14. BULLETIN BOARDS

The Company agrees to provide lockable bulletin boards at appropriate places on which the Union shall have the right to post notices of Union recreational and social affairs, notices of Union elections, notices of Union appointments, results of Union elections, notices of Union meetings, and any other bona fide Union business. There shall be no posting of any other matter on these boards unless agreed to by both parties.

Copies of Company bulletins relating to policy changes for employees covered by this agreement will be promptly furnished to the Regional Vice President and the terminal Shop Steward of the Union.

ARTICLE 15. SUPERVISORS WORK PROHIBITION

In the case of call-offs or no shows, the Company will first request that employees who are on the property and who are qualified to do the necessary work remain for up to two hours. Then the Company will attempt to reach – in seniority order - a minimum of three employees. The Company will maintain a call log for inspection if requested by the Regional Vice President or the Chief Shop Steward of the Union. If the employees are unavailable when called and/or fail to return a call within 15 minutes, the Company may determine that sufficient bargaining unit employees are not available.

All employees will be required to maintain a working contact number on file with the Company.

ARTICLE 16. JOB BIDDING

- (a) All full-time permanent shift openings will be posted by the Company. The bid will list the primary duties of the job. A full-time permanent shift opening is defined as a shift of at least 32 hours per week that is not established solely for summer or seasonal business. Such posting will be within five days of the vacancy.
- (b) When a new job becomes available or an existing job is vacated, bids for the job must be placed within five calendar days after the day the job is posted. If the senior employee who bids the job has the ability and necessary qualifications to perform the work of the particular job, he/she will be given a trial period of up to 15 days to demonstrate such ability. In order for an employee to be awarded a job, the employee must have completed the available training. (Training will be made available to employees who wish to prepare for desirable jobs. This training will generally be done during down times or off-peak hours.)
- (c) If no employee who bids for the job has the ability and necessary qualifications to perform the work of the particular job, the Company may assign a person to the job. The least senior person with the ability and qualifications will be assigned and will hold the new job as if he/she had bid it. The job vacated by an employee who was awarded or assigned to such job will be filled in the same manner as described above, unless the Company has eliminated that job. During the bidding period, the Company will fill the job in the most efficient manner.
- (d) An employee who through a bid was awarded a posted job can only be displaced from such job by a senior employee whose job has been eliminated or who has been displaced and who is capable of performing and fulfilling adequately the job requirements, or by general bid.
- (e) An employee who loses his/her full-time job must select another job within 72 hours from the time he/she loses his/her original full-time job.

- (f) There shall be two general bids per year for full-time employees. One will be held in conjunction with the vacation bid and will be effective with the first pay period beginning after January 1. The second will be held in May to be effective with the first pay period beginning after June 1. The general bid will be reviewed for input with the chief shop steward. Such input will be evaluated with the chief shop steward prior to posting the bid.
- (g) The general bid will be in separate categories. Food Service Leads will also bid shifts during the general bids.
- (h) The Company will assign shift coverage during vacations and other known leaves to qualified, available full-time employees, or, if none are available, to part-time employees. However, the Company will put up for bid all vacation relief, sick leave and other known leaves that are expected to be in excess of 5 working days provided the Company has five days' notice of such leaves. Such postings may be for short periods depending on need. It is not the intent of this provision to prevent the Company from making assignments to meet emergencies or short term immediate needs.

ARTICLE 17. TRAINING

Training will be made available to all full-time employees. Such employees will be paid their straight time hourly rate while attending the training programs, which will include an opportunity for "hands on" experience.
